PLACEMENT AND INTERNSHIP RULES

Document ID: NXT-HR-007 | Version: 2.0 | Effective Date: 01 September 2026

Policy Owner	Human Resources Department
Approval Authority	Head of Human Resources
Applies To	Eligible employees
Review Cycle	Annual or when requirements change

1. Purpose

Defines a structured process for campus placement, graduate hiring, internship selection, assessment, and conversion decisions.

2. Eligibility

Eligibility may depend on graduation status, academic criteria, backlog rules, required skills, role-specific prerequisites, and the requirements announced for the hiring program.

3. Candidate Registration

Candidates must provide accurate academic, contact, project, certification, and profile information through the designated process.

4. Academic Verification

Academic percentages and qualifications must be taken from submitted or verified records. Missing marks must be recorded as not available rather than estimated.

5. Resume Screening

Resumes are screened against documented role requirements. Relevant projects, internships, skills, certifications, and technical evidence may be considered.

6. Round 1 - Aptitude

The aptitude stage may test quantitative reasoning, logical reasoning, verbal ability, data interpretation, and problem-solving.

7. Round 2 - Coding / Technical

Technical assessment may include programming, SQL, debugging, algorithms, system fundamentals, or role-specific technical tasks.

8. Round 3 - Project / Technical Interview

Candidates may be asked to explain project objectives, architecture, individual contribution, tools, trade-offs, testing, results, and lessons learned.

9. Final HR Round

The final HR stage may cover communication, role expectations, work location, availability, compensation expectations where applicable, and workplace behaviours.

10. Selection Decision

Final decisions should combine documented assessment evidence and approved role-specific criteria. No protected personal attribute should be used to qualify or reject a candidate.

11. Internship Evaluation

Intern performance may be assessed using attendance, learning progress, deliverables, mentor feedback, technical contribution, and professional conduct.

12. Internship Conversion

Conversion to full-time employment is not automatic and may depend on performance, business requirements, open positions, and successful completion of applicable assessments.

13. Candidate Records

Assessment results and decisions should be retained according to the applicable records process and accessed only by authorized personnel.
